

Ready to take your career to the next level?

We are currently looking for LEAN SPECIALIST

Have a look at our open vacancy below and let us know if you think we might be a match:

Tasks & Responsibilities

- Drive the implementation and further development of the Weidmüller Lean System at site level.
- Introducing and establishing Standard Work, Visual Management and Shopfloor Management
- Identify, analyze, and optimize processes using Lean methods (e.g., Value Stream Mapping, Process Mapping, Waste Reduction)
- Design and improve workplaces under efficiency and ergonomic aspects.
- Leading enables and facilitates the teams to use and to apply the Lean principles into their day by day working days in a systematic way.
 - Support and coach production and support functions in applying Lean methodologies.
- Ensuring the success of the improvement activities in the Weidmüller Lean system in the assigned area of responsibility
- Lead and coordinate Lean improvement initiatives and Kaizen activities.
- Ensure sustainability and effectiveness of implemented measures through monitoring and follow-up.
- Develop and implement simple, pragmatic standards for daily operations.
- Support for all activities in the Weidmüller Lean system
- Function as a trusted partner for department heads and shop floor teams
- Serve as the local expert and main contact person for Lean topics within Weidmüller group at plant level.

Job requirements

- Previous experience in similar roles
 - min. 3 years of experience in the technical field
- Bachelor's Degree (technical studies is an advantage)
- Highly proficient in Microsoft Office Suite- SAP is an advantage (Outlook, Excel, Adobe, Power Point, etc.)
- Excellent command of English (German is an added value)

Interested?

Contact us for this opportunity: HR-Lugoj@weidmueller.com

Tipul de angajare

Full-time