2. General overview

For certain products in the LL product series, the trays are not fully utilized within the current packaging unit. To optimize the use of the available tray space while reducing packaging material (polystyrene), the trays will be fully populated in future. This will change the number of pieces per packaging unit.
The previous and new packaging units are listed in the “Affected items” table.

Previous Version	New Version

Packaging space not fully utilised	Packaging space fully utilised

3. Availability

The changeover to the new packaging unit will take place on 1 May 2027. Existing stock with the previous packaging unit will be fully depleted before the changeover. From the changeover date onwards, the affected items will be supplied exclusively in the new packaging unit.
